

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

Corporations (including S corporations) and certain tax-exempt organizations (subject to the tax on unrelated business taxable income) which have an income tax liability of $500 or more use Form 2220AL to determine:

- Whether they are subject to the interest and penalty due for underpayment of estimated tax and, if so,
- The amount of the underpayment interest and penalty due for the period that applies.

Section 40-18-80.1 of the Code of Alabama 1975 provides for interest on underpayments of estimated taxes for corporations. The amount of any required quarterly installment shall be 25% of the required annual payment. In addition, Section 40-2A-11 of the Code of Alabama 1975 provides for a 10% penalty on underpayments of quarterly installments.

In addition, Alabama tax law provides for relief from the interest and penalty due on underpayments of estimated tax if the taxpayer computes their required quarterly installments using an approved federal method (annualized or seasonal). The Internal Revenue Service requires that a taxpayer use federal Form 2220 if the taxpayer seeks relief from the interest due on their underpayment of quarterly estimates. Alabama has developed Form 2220AL to allow for the same relief. Alabama Form 2220AL closely mirrors federal Form 2220. Form 2220AL should be used by corporations when estimated taxes are computed and paid based on an allowable federal method which reduces the amount of estimated tax required to be paid to the State of Alabama below the amount that would be due using the regular method for computing quarterly installments. Taxpayers that file a consolidated federal return must complete and submit consolidated federal Form 2220 and a proforma federal Form 2220 using separate company tax information along with Form 2220AL. Federal Form 2220 may not be due if the federal group does not have enough income for the federal estimated tax penalty to apply. However, Alabama requires a consolidated federal Form 2220 and proforma federal Form 2220 be remitted with Form 2220AL.

Under the normal method prescribed in Section 40-18-80.1, taxpayers should remit 25% of the required annual payment per quarter. The first payment is due by the 15th day of the 4th month of the taxable year. The 2nd, 3rd and 4th quarter payments are due by the 15th day of the 6th, 9th and 12th months, respectively (see the table below).

Installment	Calendar Year The Due Date Is	Fiscal Year The Due Date Is
1st	April 15	15th day of the 4th month following the start of the tax year
2nd	June 15	15th day of the 6th month following the start of the tax year
3rd	September 15	15th day of the 9th month following the start of the tax year
4th	December 15	15th day of the 12th month following the start of the tax year

Although taxpayers utilizing one of the allowable federal methods (either the Annualized Income Installment Method or the Seasonal Installment Method) may receive some relief in regards to reduced interest and penalty on the amount underpaid by quarter, the due dates for the quarterly installments will always be computed in accordance with the provisions in the table above.

If an installment is due on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, payments made on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday are considered made on the due date to the extent the payment is applied against that required installment.

Check the box on the front of Form 20C or 20C-C and attach Form 2220AL along with a copy of the federal Form 2220, consolidated and proforma federal Form 2220, if applicable, directly following the Schedule AB. If the Schedule AB is not included, attach the Form 2220AL; federal Form 2220; consolidated and proforma federal Form 2220, if applicable, directly following page four of the Form 20C or 20C-C. If the box is not checked to indicate the taxpayer used an alternate method for computing interest and penalty on their underpayment, or if the completed Form 2220AL along with a completed copy of the federal Form 2220 and consolidated and proforma federal Form 2220, if applicable, is not included with the Alabama corporate return when filed, relief will not be granted. Penalty and interest will be computed for underpayment of the taxpayer's quarterly installments based on 25% of the required annual payment per quarter.

Note: In these instructions, "return" refers to the corporation's original return.

To obtain Form 2220AL visit our Web site at www.revenue.alabama.gov.

Who Must File

Generally, a corporation does not have to file this form with its income tax return because the Department of Revenue will compute the amount of any interest or penalty and notify the corporation of any amount due. However, even if the corporation does not owe additional interest and penalty, complete and attach this form to the corporation's tax return if Part I, line 3 on page 1 is $500 or more and any of the following apply. See Part II, page 3 of these instructions.

1. The adjusted seasonal installment method is used.
2. The annualized income installment method is used.
3. Large Corporation – 1st quarter installment

Who Must Pay the Underpayment Interest and/or Penalty?

Generally, a corporation is subject to interest and penalty if the tax shown on its 2011 return is $500 or more and it did not timely pay at least the smaller of:

1. The tax shown on its 2011 return or
2. The tax shown on its 2010 return (if it filed a 2010 return showing at least some amount of tax and the return was for a full 12 months). However, a large corporation may base only its first required installment on the prior year's tax.

The interest and penalty are figured separately for each installment due date. Therefore, the corporation may owe interest and penalty for an earlier due date even if it paid enough tax later to make up the underpayment. This is true even if the corporation is due a refund when its return is filed.

Exception to the Interest and Penalty

The corporation will not have to pay interest or penalty if:

1. The tax shown on the corporation's 2011 return (Part I, line 3 amount) is less than $500 and the tax has been paid by the original due date.

How To Use Form 2220AL

Complete lines 1 through 3 of Part I. If line 3 is $500 or more, then go to Part II.

Check one or more boxes in Part II if the corporation utilized the Annualized Income Installment Method, and/or Adjusted Seasonal Installment Method to compute and pay estimated tax or if the corporation is a "large corporation" and calculated its first quarter installment based on the prior year tax liability.

If the corporation checked a box in Part II and the tax liability is $500 or more, attach Form 2220AL along with the federal Form 2220; consolidated and proforma federal Form 2220, if applicable. Be sure to check the box on the corporate return to indicate that the Form 2220AL is attached.

Complete Schedule A if the corporation utilized the Annualized Income Installment Method and/or Schedule B for the Adjusted Seasonal Installment Method and Part VI before completing Part III of this form.

Complete Part III after completing Part VI to determine the underpayment of any of the required installment payments.

If there is an underpayment on line 15 of Part III [column (a), (b), (c), or (d)], go to Part IV to calculate any late payment estimate penalty. Then go to Part V to compute any additional interest due.

Specific Instructions

Part I – Required Annual Payment

All taxpayers must complete Part I and Part II of the form before completing any other parts of Form 2220AL. Part I is used to compute the required annual payment that would be due to the Department of Revenue for the year under the regular method. Taxpayers utilizing the Annualized Income Installment Method should skip to Schedule A to compute the required installments after completing Part I and Part II of Form 2220AL. Taxpayers utilizing the Adjusted Seasonal Installment Method should skip to Schedule B after completing Part I and Part II of Form 2220AL.

Complete lines 1 through 3 to figure the corporation's required annual payment.

Line 2. Enter the corporation's 2010 tax liability from Form 20C, Page 1, line 15 Form 20C-C, Page 1, line 2c or Form 20S, Page 1, line 21. If the corporation is considered a Large Corporation (see definition for Large Corporation in this section) or if the previous year's return did not have a tax liability, or if the previous tax year was for a period of less than 12 months the Required Annual Payment by default is 100% of the current year's tax. If the corporation's Required Annual Payment is by default 100% of the current year's tax, skip this line and enter the amount from line 1 on line 3.

Large Corporations are corporations that have Alabama Taxable Income of $1,000,000 or more within a testing period. The testing period consists of the three year period immediately preceding the current tax year. The Taxable Income test for a Large Corporation is Alabama taxable income without regard to any Net Operating Losses which may have been carried to one of the years in the testing period. Large Corporations are required to pay 100% of the current year tax in accordance with Section 40-18-80.1 of the Code of Alabama 1975. Large Corporations are allowed to base the first estimated tax installment on the previous year's tax. However, the tax must be recaptured by increasing the next required installment by the amount of the reduction to the first installment. Large Corporations, in addition to all other corporations, are allowed to use Form 2220AL in accordance with these instructions to compute their required installments if the alternative methods available reduce the amount of tax that would be owed using one of the alternative methods rather than using the regular method for computing estimated tax installments.

Line 3. Enter the amount from line 1 or line 2.

Part II – Reasons for Filing

Line 4. Check this box if the corporation used the annualized income method for federal purposes. Use the same method for Alabama and attach the federal Form 2220; consolidated and proforma federal Form 2220, if applicable.

Line 5. Check this box if the corporation used the adjusted seasonal installment method for federal purposes. Use the same method for Alabama and attach the federal Form 2220; consolidated and proforma federal Form 2220, if applicable.

Line 6. Check this box if the corporation is a large taxpayer claiming the large corporation exception and calculated its first quarter installment based on the prior year tax. Any reduction in the 1st installment will be required to be recaptured by increasing the amount of the next required installment.

Taxpayers utilizing the Annualized Income Installment Method should skip to Schedule A to compute the required installments after completing Part I and Part II of Form 2220AL. Taxpayers utilizing the Adjusted Seasonal Installment Method should skip to Schedule B after completing Parts I and II of Form 2220AL.

Line 8. Enter 25% of line 3 in columns (a) through (d). "Large corporations" may make the first quarter estimated payment at 25% of line 4 or make the first quarter estimated payment based on the corporation's prior year tax liability and not be subject to the underpayment penalty; however, the corporation is required to make estimate payments based on the 2011 tax liability.

If the box on line 4 and/or line 5 or the box on line 6 is checked, enter the amounts from page 3, Part VI, line 45.

Line 9. Enter the estimated tax payments made by the corporation for its tax year as indicated below. In column (a) only, include any overpayment from the corporation's 2010 tax return that was credited to the corporation's 2011 estimated tax and enter the amount on line 13.

In column (a) only, include any overpayment from the corporation's 2010 tax return that was credited to the corporation's 2011 estimated tax. If an installment is due on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, payments made on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday are considered made on the due date to the extent the payment is applied against that required installment.

Column (a). Enter payments made by the date on line 17, column (a). Include any overpayment from the corporation's 2010 tax return that was credited to the corporation's 2011 estimated tax.

If line 21 reflects an overpayment, no penalty is due, enter -0- on line 22.

Part V – Computing the Addition to Tax-Interest

Complete lines 23 through 42 to determine the amount of interest due. The interest is computed for the period of underpayment using the underpayment rate determined under section 6621(a)(2). The period of underpayment runs from the installment due date to the earlier of the date the underpayment is actually paid or the 15th day of the third month after the close of the 2011 tax year. For information on obtaining the interest rate on underpayments paid after December 31, 2011, see the footnote on page 2 of Form 2220AL.

Line 23. A payment of estimated tax is applied against underpayments of required installments in the order that installments are required to be paid, regardless of the installment to which the payment pertains.

Example. A corporation underpaid the April 15 installment by $1,000. The June 15 installment requires a payment of $2,500. On June 11, the corporation deposits $2,500 to cover the June 15 installment. However, $1,000 of this payment is applied against the April 15 installment. The penalty for the April 15 installment is figured to June 11 (56 days). The remaining $1,500 is applied to the June 15 installment as if it were made on June 15.

If the corporation has made more than one payment for a required installment, attach a separate computation for each payment.

Part VI – Required Installments – Annualized Income and/or Seasonal Installment Method
